

Presentation Skills Webinar

More than the PowerPoint: Your Words, Your Visuals, & Your Voice

~~July 25, 2016 — 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.~~

August 25, 2016 — 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

September 20, 2016 — 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Michigan's
Local Technical Assistance Program

Research has shown PowerPoint presentations to be beneficial to learning...but also detrimental to cognitive processes! In that light, this webinar will focus on two other key elements of presentations—the words you plan to say and the vocal delivery. Pre-planning and drafting presentations will be addressed in the first hour; visual aids and vocal delivery will be covered in the second hour.

$10 Registration Fee

Register online for the August or the September webinar. Questions? Email ctt@mtu.edu.

View more training opportunities at here. For fulfillment of Continuing Education requirements, participants must be registered. The Center for Technology & Training's continuing education policy is available here.

Instructor: Victoria Sage

Victoria Sage is a technical writer at the CTT, where she writes, reviews, and designs technical materials for the Michigan LTAP. Prior to working at the CTT, she worked in the medical field as a technical communicator, with duties ranging from technical editing and graphic design to marketing and outreach communication. She recently completed a Master of Science in Rhetoric and Technical Communication during which she developed and taught undergraduate courses in Composition.