Webinar Description:

Join Steve Gradowski (Information Technology Manager, Saginaw County Road Commission) and Ingrid Sandberg for an interactive and conversational webinar exploring real-life scenarios, best practices, and everyday tactics to fortify your digital defenses.

This session is aimed at local agency staff who want answers to their cybersecurity questions - without the jargon!

We'll address common pitfalls and provide practical solutions tailored to your concerns as a local agency.

By the end of our session, you'll walk away with actionable tips, a clearer understanding of cybersecurity essentials, and the confidence to implement these strategies in your digital life.
