Christmas in the Summer?????
Around the Corner
Oh, by the way, this is New Zealand!!

A red tracked vehicle, possibly a military or expedition vehicle, is shown in a snowy environment. The vehicle has a white snowplow blade at the front and is carrying a large yellow container on its back. It is moving through deep snow, kicking up a cloud of white powder. The vehicle has a circular logo on its side and a rack of equipment on top.

But it's a Dry Cold!!!

It's Spring on the Shear Zone

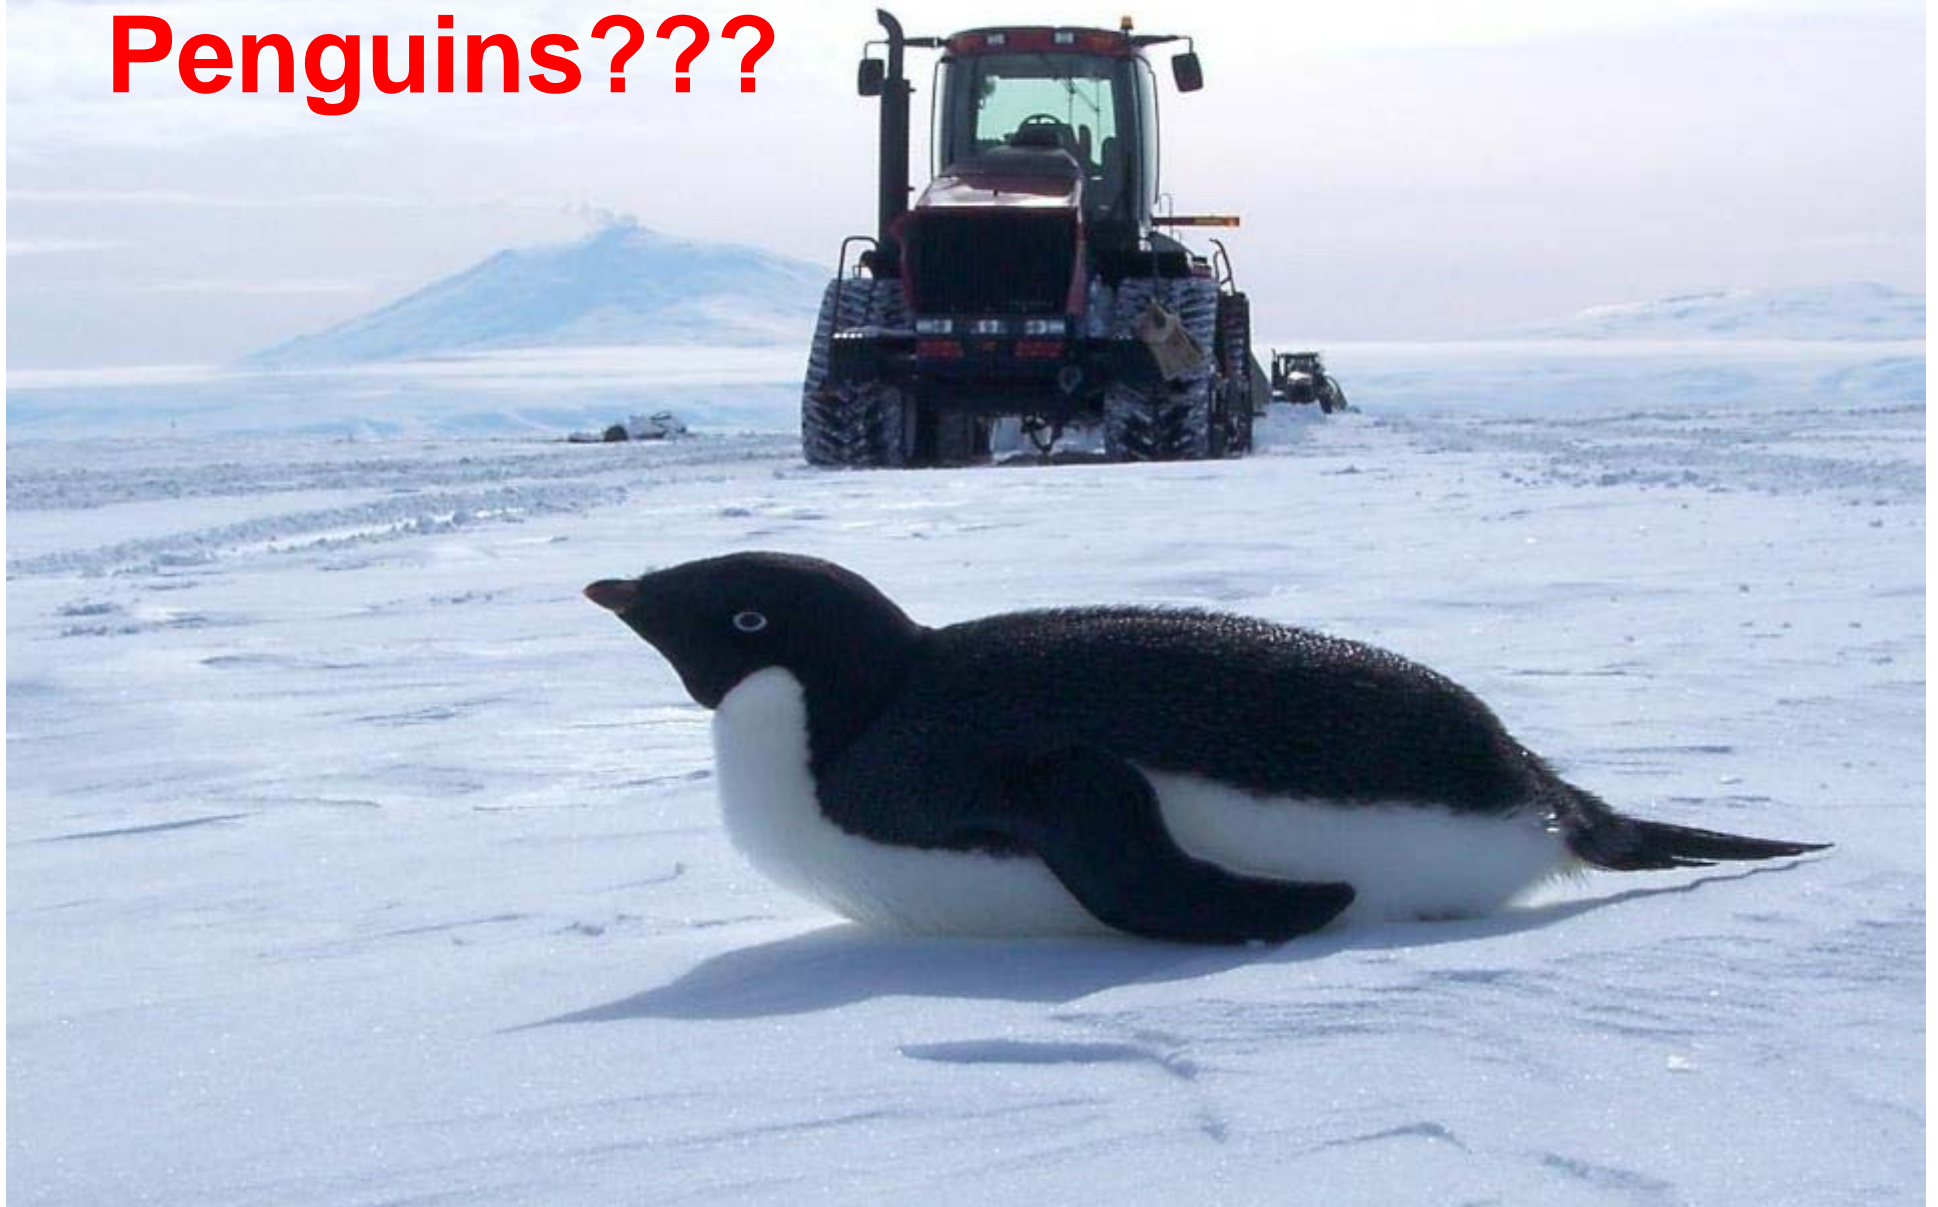

And Where the Heck are the Penguins???
